Alice Hilton is responsible for the execution of a variety of litigation engagements. Ms. Hilton has over 25 years of professional services experience as a litigation financial consultant and expert witness in complex commercial litigation matters. She holds the Master Analyst in Financial Forensics credential and is a Certified Fraud Examiner.

Ms. Hilton specializes in analyzing lost profit and economic damages in matters involving breach of contract, tortious interference, trade secrets/non-compete, unfair competition/antitrust, partnership disputes, breach of fiduciary duty, and business interruption issues. She has provided expert witness testimony for depositions and trial in matters adjudicated in state and federal district courts.

Ms. Hilton has performed financial forensic investigations in a number of alleged embezzlement matters related to partnership and estate disputes. She also led the class action lawsuit investigations of high-profile securities fraud matters. The securities litigation matter arising from American International Group's (AIG) 2004 financial restatement involved in-depth analyses of complex accounting issues related to reinsurance, life settlements, and related subsidiaries. The securities litigation matter that arose after AOL/ Time Warner's merger involved the review and analyses of many suspect revenue recognition accounting practices. Ms. Hilton also assisted in the securities litigation investigation of the Banc One/ First USA merger that involved the propriety of its credit card securitization accounting.

Prior to joining BVA, Ms. Hilton served as President of A B Hilton & Associates in Houston, Texas. Preceding that, she was Director of Litigation at The Hancock Firm, Senior Manager in the Forensic, Litigation, and Valuation Services department at UHY Advisors, and Executive Consultant at Peterson Consulting (which later merged with Navigant Consulting).

Ms. Hilton received a Bachelor of Business Administration, Finance and Business Economics degree from the University of Notre Dame with high honors and was Finance Student of the Year. She is a member of the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.
